Show us what you know about black history in Indiana. Take the Challenge and win!

FEBRUARY 1 THROUGH 28

Get ready!

Team up with the Indiana Historical Society and the Indianapolis-Marion County Public Library to celebrate Black History Month with the Indiana Black History Challenge.

Get set!

Investigate famous black Hoosiers and their accomplishments. For Challenge facts or other information, visit www.indianahistory.org or www.imcpl.org.

Go!

Answer the 10 questions on the game card and return it to any library branch or the Eugene and Marilyn Glick Indiana History Center by Saturday, Feb. 28.

Win!

Prizes will be awarded to the first 5,000 entrants. Get all 10 questions right, and you could win the Family Fun Pack grand prize - an overnight stay at the Hampton Inn in downtown Indianapolis, an IHS family membership, a tour of the Madame Walker Theatre, four tickets to The Children's Museum of Indianapolis, four tickets to the Indianapolis Zoo and a $20 gift certificate to King David Dogs. One participant from each ICMPL branch and the History Center will win merchandise provided by the Indianapolis Colts.

REMEMBER: The last day to enter is Feb. 28, 2009. Are you a teacher or group leader? Get your students into the Challenge! For more information, e-mail programs@indianahistory.org.

Open to all ages; one entry per person.
