

Indianapolis
Marion County
Public Library

2007 Indiana Black History Challenge (pdf version)

All residents of Indiana are welcome to take the Indiana Black History Challenge. Please contact the Indiana Historical Society at programs@indianahistory.org or (317) 233-5659 with any questions. Completed pdf versions of the Challenge can be mailed to the Indiana Historical Society, Public Programs Department, 450 W. Ohio Street, Indianapolis, IN 46202.

The last day to take the Challenge is February 28, 2007.

PARTICIPANT INFORMATION:

1. What is the name of your school or home school group?
2. If you are a home school student, please have your PARENT provide an email address or phone number. (If you are not a home school student, leave this section blank.)
3. Please give your first name and last initial.
4. What is your teacher's name?
5. What grade are you in?

CHALLENGE QUESTIONS (Circle One Answer Only):

1. Which African Methodist Episcopal church has been located in downtown Indianapolis since the Antebellum Period?

- Eastern Star
- Bethel
- Allen
- Chapel Light of the World

2. The Eleutherian College, located in _____ County, Indiana, provided educational opportunities to African Americans during the 1850s.

Marion
Jefferson
Lake
Knox

3. Located in Vanderburgh County, the _____ encouraged African Americans to support the war effort during World War II.

Princeton Recorder
Evansville Sun
Vincennes Globe
Evansville Argus

4. John Hardrick was one of the many students who developed their art skills under the tutelage of Manual High School teacher, _____.

Russell Lane
Alexander Moore
Otto Stark
William Scott

5. Indiana Avenue has been awarded several honors. It has received all but one of the following accolades:

National Historic Landmark designation and on National Register of Historic Places
Country and Western venue
One of the diagonal streets selected by surveyor Alexander Ralston
Named an Indianapolis Cultural District

6. George Knox, owner of the Freeman newspaper, was also a well-known _____.

Mortician
Musician
Banker
Barber

7. Harvey N. Middleton was a civic-minded physician. His specialty was _____.

Pediatrics
Neurology
Pathology
Cardiology

8. Like his father, this man was an attorney and served as business manager of the Madam C. J. Walker Manufacturing Company.

Booker T. Washington
Willard Ransom
W. E. B. DuBois
Henry J. Richardson, Jr.

9. William Edouard Scott, born and reared in Indianapolis completed his 1912 painting, "Rainy Day Etaples," in which European city?

Paris
Copenhagen
London
Berlin

10. George P. Stewart co-founded the Indianapolis Recorder with _____.

Madam C. J. Walker
Will Porter
George Knox
William Mays

Abbreviated Rules

- 1. No purchase necessary
2. Enter by obtaining game card from the Indiana Historical Society (see complete rules for various ways to obtain a game card)
3. Promotion begins February 1, 2007 and ends February 28, 2007
4. Grand Prize - Family Fun Pack ($50.00 value) and four (4) tickets to the Indiana Pacers v. Atlanta Hawks game on March 17, 2007 ($500.00 value). 10 Second Place Prizes – a Read to Achieve Backpack ($10.00 value), a copy of the book But They Can't Beat Us: Oscar Robertson and the Crispus Attucks Tigers ($19.95 value), an African American History poster ($4.95 value) and a Booklite ($5.00 value).
5. Taxes are responsibility of winners
6. Odds of winning dependant on the number of eligible, completed and correct game cards received
7. Must be legal resident of Indiana to enter (additional restrictions apply)
8. Void where prohibited
9. Write to Indiana Historical Society at 450 W. Ohio Street, Indianapolis, IN 46202 or log on to www.indianahistory.org for complete rules