Westland Monthly Meeting Minutes (Hancock County)

Edited by Ruth Dorrel and Thomas D. Hamm

Westland Monthly Meeting was set off from Walnut Ridge Monthly Meeting and first held Tenth Month 16, 1872. It originally consisted of Westland Preparative Meeting, established in 1845, and Western Grove Preparative Meeting, established in 1864. Friends had settled in Blue River Township, Hancock County, in the 1820s. Even after it was set off, Westland continued to be closely linked to Walnut Ridge Monthly Meeting.

The establishment of Westland coincided with a period of considerable evangelism and growth among Indiana Friends. Westland Monthly Meeting established several new preparative meetings, most of them relatively short-lived: Center (1878–98), Philadelphia (1887–1908), Greenfield (established in 1891; set off as a monthly meeting 1904), and Pendleton in Madison County (established in 1890; members transferred to Anderson Monthly Meeting in 1898).

The following records are in the Indiana Yearly Meeting Archives in the Friends Collection of Earlham College. Those marked with an asterisk (*) were searched for this abstract and are available in the Indiana Yearly Meeting Archives in the Friends Collection of Earlham College and in the Genealogy Division of the Indiana State Library. Those marked with two asterisks (**) are available on microfilm in the William Henry Smith Memorial Library of the Indiana Historical Society. Records were supplemented with inscriptions from tombstones at Walnut Ridge and Westland.
