Raysville/Knightstown Monthly Meeting Births and Deaths (Henry County)

Edited by Ruth Dorrel and Thomas D. Hamm

Raysville Monthly Meeting was set off from Spiceland Monthly Meeting and first held Fourth Month 15, 1857. The meetinghouse is located on the east side of the village of Raysville.

The first Friends who lived in Raysville and the larger town of Knightstown on the other side of Blue River attended Elm Grove Meeting. Spiceland Monthly Meeting established a meeting for worship in Raysville in 1841, which became a preparative meeting in 1846. When Raysville Meeting was established, Elm Grove remained part of Spiceland, but was transferred to Raysville in 1870. It was laid down in 1876.

Raysville was the parent of several other Friends meetings. The most important of these was Knightstown, established in 1876. It apparently grew as Raysville Preparative Meeting declined, so in 1895 the name of the monthly meeting was changed to Knightstown. Raysville Preparative Meeting survived, however, and in a complicated twist of Quaker genealogy Knightstown Monthly Meeting “set off” Raysville as a new monthly meeting in 1919. Other preparatives included Grant City (1876) in Henry County and Wilkinson (1887) and Shirley (1892) in Hancock County.
