Walnut Ridge Monthly Meeting Births and Deaths (Rush County)

Edited by Ruth Dorrel and Thomas D. Hamm

Walnut Ridge Monthly Meeting was set off from Duck Creek Monthly Meeting and first held First Month 16, 1836. Its establishment was not without difficulty for Friends. In Sixth Month 1835 the committee appointed at Duck Creek to consider Walnut Ridge's request to hold a monthly meeting reported in rather tortured prose: "We have visited that Preparative and Duck Creek Monthly Meeting and notwithstanding on coming to the important consideration of the subject in its different borings, were introduced into something of a peculiar trial, yet we were united in believing it might be best to grant their request." Duck Creek Monthly Meeting did not concur at that time, but in Seventh Month united in recommending that Walnut Ridge become a monthly meeting.

Friends from North Carolina and Virginia began to settle in Ripley Township, Rush County, as early as 1822, and soon spread into adjacent Blue River Township in Hancock County. Walnut Ridge Preparative Meeting, about 2.5 miles southwest of the present site of Carthage, was established in Twelfth Month 1826. A frame meetinghouse replaced the old log structure in 1840. It was burned Fourth Month 12, 1864, reportedly by Knights of the Golden Circle from Shelby County, who resented Quaker support for abolition and equal rights for black people. The brick meetinghouse finished in 1866 is still in use.

Walnut Ridge was the parent of a large number of meetings. Carthage, established in 1839, was set off as a monthly meeting in 1866. Little Blue River, established in 1842, was set off with Carthage. Westland, established in 1845, was set off as a monthly meeting in 1872. Pleasant View, established in 1850, was laid down in 1901. Charlottesville Preparative Meeting was established in 1873 and Riverside in 1875.

Walnut Ridge achieved international note because of the "revival" that broke out within its bounds in 1867. The revival practices were unprecedented among Friends and attracted wide attention.

The records listed below are in the Indiana Yearly Meeting Archives in the Friends Collection at Earlham College. Those indicated by an asterisk (*) were searched for this abstract. They have been supplemented by inscriptions from tombstones at Walnut Ridge, Carthage, Little Blue River, Pleasant View, Westland, and the Riverside Cemetery at Carthage. These records have been microfilmed and are available in the Indiana Yearly Meeting Archives in the Friends Collection at Earlham College and in the Genealogy Division of the Indiana State Library.
