HISTORICAL SKETCH

Lawrence County is located in central southern Indiana and was formed in 1818. It was named after Captain James Lawrence who perished in the War of 1812. Monroe County is located just north of Lawrence County in central southern Indiana. It was also formed in 1818 and named for James Monroe, the fifth President of the United States. Lawrence County Courthouse was built in 1870 and expanded in 1930. It is located in Bedford, Indiana and is part of Judicial District 20.

Mundell Christian Church is an independent Christian church (non-denominational) located near Heltonville, Indiana. It was founded in 1865.

The Indiana University Bloomington Frances Morgan Swain Student Building and clock tower were built in 1905. The building currently houses the geography and anthropology departments. It has also contained the Indiana University Museum since 1970.

Cutright State Recreation Area is a designated leisure area on Lake Monroe in Bloomington, Indiana. It is part of the Indiana Department of Natural Resources. They rent boats and provide docking and picnicking areas for travelers and visitors.
