HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Showteens were a performing group composed of high school and college students from the Calumet Region. Formed in 1964 by Fr. Alfred Dettmer of Michigan City, the group performed Broadway musical numbers and popular songs. In 1970 Phyllis Peyrot and Charles Breckle became director and producer of the Showteens. The group performed in various places throughout the Midwest and made several tours of Europe and the West Indies. Breckle also taught at Bishop Noll Institute, a private, Catholic high school located in Hammond, Indiana. Some of the Showteens also attended Bishop Noll.
