BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

JoAnn Fox was a teacher at Cumberland Road Elementary School in Fishers. Fox was awarded as an Outstanding Indiana Teacher of Geography for the 2003–2004 academic year by the Geography Educators' Network of Indiana. Fox also taught social studies methods for elementary teachers at Ball State University. In February 2008, Fox returned to Cumberland Road to work with fourth graders on the topic of Francis Slocum and conflicts between Native Americans and white settlers.
