

NHDI 2023 – South Region

Junior Paper

“Madam C.J. Walker: Creating New Frontiers for African-Americans and Women During the Jim Crow Era” – Adaline Adams (Brown County Middle School)

“The Discussion of The New York Newsies Strike of 1899” – Addilyn Ulmet (Edgewood Junior High School)

“The Impact of the Internet and Technology on Modern-Day Society” – Sophie Xu (Jackson Creek Middle School)

Junior Group Exhibit

“Indiana Statehood” – Ethan Cooper, Ira Suvak (Salem Middle School)

“Moses Fleetwood Walker” – Jaden Doyle, Landon Russell, Luke Ingram (Salem Middle School)

“Sputnik 1 Timeline” – Carson Shields, Damian Knopp, Lyric Kay (Salem Middle School)

Senior Paper

“The Polio Vaccine: Breaking Barriers of Resistance to Modern Medicine in the United States” – Isra Badar (Plainfield High School)

“The Great Ideological Frontier: Spain’s Emergence as a Democracy” – Aidan Schilling (Brown County High School)

“The Vietnam War: A New Frontier in Wartime Photography” – Laura Prevot (Brown County High School)

“Sharing Smoke: Tobacco as the Frontier of a Worldwide Culture” – Cecilia Mundy (Homeschool)

“Henrietta Lacks and the Broken Medical Frontiers: Where Should Medical Decisions and Ethics Coincide?” – Laureyn Wendte (Triton Central High School)

Senior Individual Documentary

“Carlisle Indian Industrial School; How the American Frontier Led to the Residential Schools of North America” – Genevieve Laguna (Brown County High School)

Senior Individual Exhibit

“Temple Grandin Squeezing Her Way Into History” – Amara Hanson (Edgewood Junior High School)

“The Fox Sisters” – Aleah Heineman (Triton Central High School)

Senior Group Exhibit

“Jackie Robinson: Breaking the MLB Color Barrier” – Adam Mull, Braxton Backus, Cage Callaway, Evan Cooper, Nick Ingram (Salem High School)

“Penicillin: How it Changed the Medical Field” – Korabell Gilstrap, Noah Deaton (Salem High School)