

Records from Two Marshall Family Bibles, 1752–1932

Transcribed by Lloyd Hosman

James Marshall (1781–1866) came to Rush County, Indiana, from Harrison County, Kentucky, in 1831. Two bibles from the Marshall family are now in the possession of Lloyd and Charlotte Hosman of Knightstown, Indiana. Charlotte Hosman is the third great-granddaughter of James Marshall. Most of the Marshall family members listed in these bibles lived in Rush or Shelby County, Indiana.

The bibles are complete with the exception of missing front covers and title pages. The inner pages that contain the family records have been transcribed. One bible was published in 1818 and the other in 1824, and the transcriptions below are kept separate accordingly. Editorial additions are included in brackets.
