HISTORICAL SKETCH

Established in 1879, Bertsch & Company first manufactured agriculture implements before moving into sheet metal fabrication machines in the late 1880s. Purchased by brothers Charles and John Bertsch, the company was run by members of the extended family for three generations, with yet another generation working in the company after it was sold to Deem-Eubanks International, a company based in Cincinnati, in 1978. In 2003, the Bertsch brand was bought by the Piranha brand.
