BLACKFORD AND DELAWARE COUNTY CEMETERY INDEXES, CA. 2007–2013

Processed by

Alysha Zemanek
April 2017

Manuscript and Visual Collections Department
William Henry Smith Memorial Library
Indiana Historical Society
450 West Ohio Street
Indianapolis, IN 46202-3269

www.indianahistory.org

COLLECTION INFORMATION

VOLUME OF COLLECTION:	1 manuscript folder
COLLECTION DATES:	Ca. 2007–13
PROVENANCE:	Judy and Max Wiesenauer, Georgetown, IN; January 2014
RESTRICTIONS:	None
COPYRIGHT:
REPRODUCTION RIGHTS:	Permission to reproduce or publish material in this collection must be obtained from the Indiana Historical Society.
ALTERNATE FORMATS:
RELATED HOLDINGS:
ACCESSION NUMBER:	2014.0010
NOTES:	This collection consists of two USB drives with digital files.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

Cemetery indexes allow researchers to learn more about their family members, including birth and death dates, as well as familial relationships. Cemetery indexes also provide insight into a person or family's community status.

Sources:

Collection materials.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection contains two USB drives with digital files related to cemeteries in Blackford County, Indiana and Delaware County, Indiana. The files include photographs of headstones for each cemetery, individual cemetery indexes, a full index of all Blackford County cemeteries, a document describing the locations of the cemeteries, and four maps of cemetery sections. The files and photographs were taken and indexed by the donors, Judy and Max Wiesenauer, from 2007 to 2013. The cemeteries indexed are as follows:

- in Blackford County: Balsley, Center, County Farm, Goghnauer, Miles, Mt. Tabor, Pleasantdale, Reeves, Trenton South, Trenton West, Twibell South, Wayman, Penrod, Sprague, Herbaugh, Stewart, Shields, Roll, Greenlawn, Hadden, Lyons Woolard, Leffler, Cunningham, Twibell North, Hartford City (IOOF), Woodlawn, Brookside, and Dunkirk (IOOF)
- in Delaware County: Buckles, Elizabethtown, Eaton, and Schmidt

CONTENTS