BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Carolyn Marie Elliott McManaman (1917) was born in Guilford, IN to Dr. John Cofield Elliott and Nelle Buchanan Elliott. She attended Miller-York Consolidated School (later Guilford School), and was a graduate of Guilford High School and DePauw University. McManaman also attended the Campbell Business School in Cincinnati. She worked for five years for the Cincinnati Ordinance District of the U.S. Army during World War II. McManaman was a member of numerous Indiana organizations and groups throughout her life such as Beecher Presbyterian Church, Pi Chapter of Kappa Kappa Kappa, Erthstane History Club, Indiana Heart Foundation, Lawrenceburg Public Library, Indiana Historical Society, and Dearborn County Historical Society. She was also involved in Ohio groups like the Cincinnati Wild Flora Preservation Society and Cincinnati Color Slide Club.

Carolyn married James T. McManaman in 1947 and they resided in Greendale, IN. They traveled much in their lifetime, visiting all 50 states and several foreign countries. She was an avid photographer, documenting many of these trips. McManaman passed in 2011.
