BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Charles Dickman (fl. 1862-1870) was a locomotive engineer. Between 1862 and 1870 he worked on the Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati & Indianapolis Railroad and on the Jeffersonville, Madison & Indianapolis Railroad. In 1870 he was looking for a job on the Union Pacific Railroad.

The 1868 Indianapolis city directory lists Charles Dickman as keeping a saloon and living at 208 East Washington Street. He does not appear in earlier directories.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

This collection contains one item, a letter from W. T. Clark of the Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati & Indianapolis Railroad recommending Charles Dickman to Governor Oliver P. Morton. The letter is endorsed on its face by T. A. Morris, and on the back by Governor Morton and by J. W. Benson.
