BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Charles Edward Warren was born in 1902 in Mattoon, Illinois, to Edward Warren and Margaret Munson Warren. He spent the first twenty or so years of his life in Illinois before moving to Indianapolis, Indiana, around 1925.

In 1928, Warren joined the Indiana National Guard despite his limp from having polio as a child. He was part of the 38th Division, 113th Observation Squadron, Photo Section. He was stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky, for his annual two week training camp.

Outside of his military career, Charles was a bus driver, working for various companies in Indianapolis including the People's Motor Coach Company and the Indianapolis Railways. Charles Warren died of a heart attack in 1962.
