BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Constance "Connie" L. Vaughan was born 18 June 1895 to Louis W. (1858–1921) and Susanne (or Susan) "Susie" Manford (1869–1952) Vaughan in Vevay, Switzerland County, Indiana. At the time of the 1900 census the family lived in the Craig township of Switzerland County, where Louis was a farmer. At the time of the 1910 census, the family lived in Madison in Jefferson County, where Louis worked as a carpenter in an automobile factory.

On 18 June 1917, on her twenty-second birthday, Constance married Harvey William Cassady (27 Aug 1893–Feb 1981) in Indianapolis. It appears that they had three children. Constance died in September 1980 in Marion County and is buried with her husband in Washington Park East Cemetery in Indianapolis.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection is composed of 94 postcards and one postcard-size souvenir card from around the state of Indiana that appear to have been written by or sent to members of the Vaughan family of Brooksburg and later of Indianapolis. The majority were sent to Constance "Connie" Vaughan (later Cassady). The areas depicted the most are Indianapolis and Madison. There are also several postcards from Switzerland County (Vevay and Moorefield) and Kosciusko County (Winona Lake, Leesburg, Tippecanoe Lake). Other postcard views are of: Greensburg, Logansport, Anderson, Star City, Knightstown, Terre Haute, North Vernon, Martinsville, Thorntown, Spencer, Rochester, French Lick, Valparaiso, Angola, Kentland, La Porte, and New Albany.

Series 1, Postcards Addressed to Constance Vaughan: This series consists of 37 postcards sent to Constance at different addresses (a few do not include any address). From 1907 to 1910 they were sent to a Brooksburg address in Switzerland County with messages primarily about school or visiting. From 1910 to 1919 the postcards were sent to various addresses in Indianapolis, including some in care of two businesses: the Indiana Dry Goods Co. and the Bradstreet Co. The messages on these are about travel, visiting, work, and school and appear to be written by friends, relatives, and former co-workers.

Series 2, Postcards from Constance Vaughan: This series includes nine postcards written by Constance. One postmarked in 1914 was sent from Moorefield in Switzerland County to Harvey Cassady, her future husband. Cards sent to her mother in Indianapolis include one postmarked 1919 from Brooksburg and one mailed from Angola in 1927. One sent to her mother in Brooksburg was sent from Angola in 1931. Other postcards are written to friends. Messages are about canning tomatoes and apples, going to a baseball game, travels, and weather. The 1919 postcard to her mother mentions that “Lewis & Inzie are going to bring us home next Monday in the machine.”

Series 3, Other Postcards Addressed to Susie (Mrs. L.W.) Vaughan: This series is comprised of 16 postcards sent to Constance’s mother with dates or postmarks from 1908 to 1919 (some n.d.). One card from “Lewis & Inzie” and another from “Inzie” bear the greeting “Dear Mother,” but no record of Susie having a child other than Constance could be found. Other cards are from friends and other relatives. Messages are about travel, weather, health, work, business, and receipt of items sent.

Series 4, Postcards To or From Various Family Members: This series is composed of five postcards: in 1908 Roy or Ray P. wrote from Madison to his grandfather, Charles Manford, in Brooksburg for permission to hunt on the farm; in 1909 Eva in Madison wrote to Mabel Vaughan in Brooksburg; in 1909 "Kid" in Louisville, Kentucky, wrote to Louis Vaughan in Moorefield, with the greeting "Hellow Dork" asking for chickens; Ralph sent a card from Winona Lake to Harvey Cassady in Indianapolis in 1911[?]; and Susie Vaughan wrote from 1718 Martindale Avenue in Indianapolis to Rosy Wakefield in Vevay of her longing to see Rosy and the children, n.d.
Series 5, Postcards Without Correspondence: This series contains 27 postcards and one souvenir card, most of which are blank. A few are addressed or have a name or some notations written on them.
