

Hoosier Baptists: Death Notices from Meetings of Four Primitive and Two-Seed Associations

Timothy Mohon

Over the course of four installments (from Fall/Winter 2009–Spring/Summer 2011), The Hoosier Genealogist: Connections published accounts of Primitive and Two-Seed Baptist associations in Indiana, along with death notices found in the annual meeting minutes of the associations, listing the deceased members' church and often additional information.¹ The death notices and other names from the extant records of the Blue River, Lost River, Danville, Mount Tabor, Marion, and Enon Associations appear below.

In the death notices, following each name is the year of the printed minutes that are abstracted, page number for the entry, and either a brief account or a full listing of the notice. See the appendix at the end of this article for a list of Baptist titles and abbreviations found in the death notices. For more information on the individual associations, see the issues of THG: Connections listed above. Other Baptist records articles in this series can be found in Online Connections under Genealogy Across Indiana.

Cornwell, Eld. H. (1874): 2; “Obituary—Departed this life on the 22nd day of October, 1873, Elder H. Cornwell. He had been a member of the Regular Baptist church forty-five years, been preaching forty-four.”

Johnson, Dea. John (1845): 4; “Died at his residence in Orange county, I[ndian]a, Deacon John Johnson, in the 63d year of his age. He was weakly and infirm for several of the last years of his life, but bore his afflictions with christian fortitude. He has left a respected family to mourn his loss. Brother Johnson it may be said, was a guide to the youth, a good neighbor, an affectionate father and kind husband. He has been, for many years, a member of the Regular Baptist church, of the old sort, sound in faith and consistent in doctrine. His praise was in the churches of his acquaintance. He was chosen one of the first Deacons of Stamperscreek [sic] church, which office he filled with honor for said church, till he died. The doctrine of grace was his delight, in reference, to salvation. It was a source of grief to him to see the people of God led away by New Schoolism, Sellarism or any craft of men, whereby they lay in wait to deceive. We sincerely mourn with his beloved consort our sister, and family for their loss. May the Lord, by grace, enable his offspring & us to imitate his example through life. . . . Our dear brother fell a sleep [sic] in the arms of Jesus, Sept. 15, 1845.”

Jones, Eld. J. (1854): 3; “Resolved, That in the demise of *J. Jones, the church has lost a long and faithful servant, and an unfaltering advocate for the faith once delivered to the Saints. He expired on the 3rd of December, A. D. 1853, aged 72 years.”

McCoy, Eld. James (1833): 5; “We have to lament the loss of our beloved Elders, Isaac Veatch and James McCoy, who died of Cholera. . . . They have been Ministers of the Gospel, and we trust their works will follow them.”

Sellers, Mrs. Sarah (1840): 4; “Died.—In Clarke [sic] county, Indiana, on the 27th ult. [August 27, 1840], Mrs. Sarah Sellers, in the 74th year of her age, and a member of the Regular Baptist Church, for the last 50 years—She died in the full assurance of the faith of God’s elect.”

Stout, Dea. Jonathan (1851): 3; “The Association grant *Harrison Cornwell the liberty to write out and insert in our minutes a few lines in view of the death of Deacon Jonathan Stout, who died at his residence in Crawford county, I[ndian]a, on the 17th day of May, 1851, aged 68 years, one month and 22 days. Brother Stout was, for many years, an esteemed member and deacon of the Regular Baptist Church at Stamperscreek [sic]; in whom was the gift of government manifested. He was clear sighted, decisive and uncompromising in relation to the government of the kingdom or his master, which enabled his brethren in Churches and Associations to be much benefitted by him. He was equally clear in mind on the subject of the doctrine of grace, and relied entire on the mediation of Jesus for salvation. . . . He is gone from whence there shall no traveller [sic] return. . . . Brethren members not only of Stamperscreek, but of the different Churches that compose our Union, the uncompromising soldier that has distinguished himself, valiant for the truth, the good citizen, husband and neighbor is gone. His seat in our meeting houses and congregations will be empty for ever. . . . Oh, may a double portion of the spirit that distinguished him and enabled him to be useful among his brethren, fall upon some one among us of equal piety. Brother Stout died in the full triumphs of faith.”

Veatch, Eld. Isaac (1833): 5; see entry for McCoy, Eld. James.

Williams, Eld. Willam R. (1851): 2–3; “In answer to Rush Creek Church, requesting the Association to insert a short biographical sketch of the life and death of our beloved Elder, William R. Williams, who was born February the 17th, 1808, and ordained to the work of the ministry at Rush Creek Church, 2d Saturday in November, 1844, and departed this life of cholera, at his own residence in Washington county, I[ndian]a, August 20th, 1851, in full assurance of faith and felicity; manifesting to his family and friends that all was well in view of his acceptance with his divine master, to whom he had been serving in the gospel.—He was beloved among us, for in his was to be found in doctrine sound judgment, correct principles, humble demeanor, which marked all his public improvements in life. His preaching was sentimental and devotional, full of encouragement to God's children, and to the defence of Zion's Kingdom. The worth of our beloved Elder will not be fully appreciated until the time when he shall stand before his Judge and hear the words of his mouth, 'well done thou good and faithful servant.'"

Worrall, Eld. Isaac (1835): 2; "With sensation of sorrow we rechorde [sic] the death of our beloved brother Isaac Worrall, who departed this life on the second day of April, 1835, with apparent full assurance of faith. As a preacher of the Gospel of Christ, he was zealous and instructing [sic].—He lived beloved and died lamented by an extensive circle of pious friends and brethren."

- McDaniel, Eld. Allen (1897): 4–5, 8; Mount Tabor church: “We deeply feel our loss in the death of Elder E. D. Thomas, which occurred June 16, 1897, and Elder Allen McDaniel, which occurred last October. The former had long served us as Moderator, and with untiring zeal sought the good of our cause. Both had for many years served our churches humbly and faithfully in preaching the precious gospel of Jesus our Savior, among us. Their lives were such as becomes the followers of Jesus, and they have left a bright example for the Elders and members who survive. We bow in humble submission to Almighty God in this matter, and earnestly pray his blessing to remain with us in supplying us still with faithful men. We sympathize deeply with sisters Thomas and McDaniel, and their families, and pray that our blessed Savior may be their stay, and enable them to bear with Christian fortitude their deep affliction. While the loss of these dear ones has produced a vacancy in our ranks, the thought of which fills our hearts with grief, yet we mourn not as those that have no hope, knowing that they have passed from labor to a rest beyond, and trusting that we shall follow them when our labors below are ended.”

Appendix: Baptist Titles and Title Abbreviations

Brother (Bro.) or Sister (Sis.): Customary designation for laypeople.

Deacon (Dea.): Layperson ordained to give spiritual leadership and assist the pastor in a congregation.

Doctor of Divinity (DD): Honorary academic degree granted by a college or university to recognize years of excellent service in the ministry and, usually, in that institution. Most nineteenth-century Baptist pastors with a doctorate possessed this degree.

Doctor of Theology (ThD): Four-year academic degree granted by a seminary or university; largely replaced today by Doctor of Ministry (DMin) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD).

Elder (Eld.): Ordained ministers or pastors; generally synonymous with Reverend (Rev.), although Primitive Baptists used the title of Elder exclusively.

Licentiate (Lic.): Individual in a preparatory stage to ordination.

Messenger: Individual appointed to represent his home church in an associational meeting (hence the church that a messenger is listed with in associational meeting minutes is his home church).

Missionary: Individual appointed to serve as pastor, evangelist, and/or to start new churches. If serving as pastor, church records list individual as such, and missionary status is discerned from missionary and executive board reports and denominational proceeding minutes.

Pastor: Individual who serves a local church by preaching, administration, and/or counseling. Before 1900 most pastors served one to four churches simultaneously, and their services were usually limited to preaching.
