BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

Paul Emerson Hamilton was born 23 February 1904 in Marion County, Indiana, to Thomas M. and Arminta A. Whiteside Hamilton. He attended Indiana University in Bloomington and became a teacher. He married Margaret Florence Smith, daughter of Isaac Henry Smith and Lenna L. Van Zant Smith, on 31 May 1930 in Hancock County, Indiana. At the time of the 1940 census he lived in Oaklondon with his wife, who went by her middle name of Florence, and their son Alan (born 8 May 1937 in Indianapolis). At that time, Paul taught at a public school. They soon had another son, Stanley K. Hamilton, born ca. 1941. Paul died 15 November 1988 in Greenfield, Indiana, and was buried in Washington Park Cemetery East in Indianapolis.

Florence Smith Hamilton was born in Indiana on 28 April 1904 and died in Greenfield on 12 December 1986. Her mother, Lenna L. Van Zant Smith, was born in Indiana on 17 April 1866, the daughter of Francis Van Zant and Malissa Sherman Van Zant. Lenna died on 17 February 1950 in Oaklondon.

Alta Elmira Teal was born 18 April 1900 in Marion County, Indiana, to John Willard Teal and Adelia E. Bolander Teal. She married Chester E. Lawson (1897–1965) in Marion County on 5 February 1921. Alta died 11 October 1979 in Greenfield, Hancock County, Indiana, and was buried in Old Oaklondon Cemetery in Oaklondon, Marion County.

Alta had an older sister, Lura Etta Teal (31 August 1883–5 April 1973), who married Martin D. Apple (1880–1910) on 9 December 1903 in Marion County. However, it could not be determined how or whether the members of the Apple family who are identified in the photographs in this collection were related to Alta Teal Lawson.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection consists of papers pertaining to Paul E. Hamilton and his family and their house in Oaklandon, Marion County, Indiana. There are also school photographs that show groups of students and teachers in the Oaklandon area, including Paul Hamilton and Alta Teal. After Alta Teal Lawson's death, the school photographs, which had belonged to her, were given to Paul Hamilton. Both went to school in Oaklandon, both died in Greenfield, and both were buried in Marion County. It is not known if they were related or how they may have been acquainted. The collection is arranged into five series as follows:

Series 1, Certificates: This series includes two certificates: teaching license for Paul E. Hamilton [1933], and dimit from the Order of the Eastern Star releasing Florence Hamilton from her membership [1934].

Series 2, Real Estate Documents: This series of papers pertains to the property composed of the west half of lots numbered 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, and 42 in Fye's Addition to the town of Oaklandon in the Lawrence township of Marion County. These papers show that property was transferred from Harold and Gladys Fye to James and Delitha Ann Weaver, and later to Paul and Florence Hamilton [1927–1942]. The papers include warranty deeds, abstracts of title, etc.

Series 3, Household and Financial Papers: This series includes billing statements, checks, and check stubs for construction work, notes about the house and its furnishings, and a statement from the Oaklandon State Bank [1938–1947].

Series 4, War Ration Books: This series contains seventeen war ration books for Paul E. Hamilton and Florence S. Hamilton, their two sons Alan and Stanley, and Florence's mother, Lenna L. Smith. Some of the books still hold ration stamps. The books also include physical descriptions and other personal information about their recipients [1942–1943].

Series 5, School Photographs: This series is composed of five black-and-white group portraits. One of the photographs is identified as being in Oaklandon, which is in the Lawrence Township of Marion County. The other photographs are not identified as to location, but appear to also be in Lawrence Township, and possibly also in Oaklandon. A few students, including Alta Teal and Paul E. Hamilton, are identified [ca. 1910 to late 1910s, n.d.].
