HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Isle of Pines Chapter of the International Travel Study Club was formed on 7 November 1946. The name was chosen because the chapter's sponsor, Mrs. Ada Lory, had lived in the Isle of Pines. The International Travel Study Club, Inc. had been organized on 14 March 1924 and affiliated with the Indianapolis Council of Women since 1938. The Isle of Pines Chapter met sporadically throughout the calendar year to learn about the world and participate in philanthropic activities. As of 2003 the group had disbanded and the records were given to the Indiana Historical Society by charter member Eileen Glanzman, the last surviving member.
