BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Census records show that in 1860 Isaac Barker was twenty and a resident of Hamilton County, Indiana. His parents were John and Anna Barker and there was a younger sister Sarah T. Barker also at home. They were Quakers from North Carolina.

Isaac Barker married Josephine M. Kepner, Sept. 1, 1861 in Hamilton County where they farmed. Isaac enlisted on February 15, 1865 as a private in B Company of the 147th Indiana Infantry. On March 1, 1865 he mustered into G Company of the 147th Indiana Infantry. He was mustered out on August 4, 1865. He returned home and resumed farming. The couple had nine children.

The 147th Regiment was organized at Indianapolis and mustered into service on March 13, 1865. It left Indianapolis for Harper's Ferry, Va. on March 16th and was assigned to a provisional division of the Army of the Shenandoah. It was engaged in performing guard duty at several locations. The regiment was mustered out on August 4, 1865 and left for Indianapolis, arriving there on the 9th of August; a few days later the men were discharged.

William Kepner of Hamilton County, Indiana was born in Indiana in 1841 and settled in Hamilton County in 1860. He enlisted on August 29, 1861 into Company E of the 8th Indiana Cavalry. He was transferred out on August 29, 1864 and transferred into A Company of the U.S. Veteran Volunteer 1st Engineers as an "artificer." He was mustered out on September 26, 1865. After the war he was a farmer in Hamilton County.
