HISTORICAL SKETCH

Jack Landon New (1923- ) was born in Greenfield, Indiana, graduated from Indiana University and served in the U. S. Army from 1943-1946. From 1948-1951 he served as Research Director for the Indiana Democratic State Central Committee, as well as being active in the Young Democrats in the 1940s and 1950s. New was a member of the Hancock County Council from 1959-1960. In 1960, Governor Matthew Welsh named New as his administrative assistant. New served three terms as Indiana State Treasurer from 1964-1966 and 1970-1978, and was a candidate for the Democratic Party's nomination for governor in 1976. In addition to his political career, he was also the owner of a furniture store in Greenfield and a part time instructor at Indiana University.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection primarily contains records and correspondence regarding New's political career. Included are political campaign and Democratic Party files, 1936-1984, such as election information, campaign strategies, finances, party conventions and dinners, local fund raisers, correspondence, publications and newsclippings. There also are records and related materials regarding New's campaigns for State Treasurer, 1964, 1970, 1974, and for the Democratic nomination for governor in 1976 including press releases, finances, office organization, issues, advertising, position papers, speaking engagements, surveys and strategies. The collection also contains records of New's involvement with the Democratic State Central Committee including correspondence, studies, publications and financial information. Other private and political materials comprise correspondence, invitations and speech materials, 1965-1976.

Also included in the collection are materials regarding New's terms as Indiana State Treasurer, 1965-1978, including dealings with relevant government and private agencies such as the Board of Finance, 1965-1967, 1971-1978, the Indiana Bankers Association, 1971-1978, the Federal Reserve Bank in Chicago, 1973-1975, the Fiscal Management Study Committee, 1978 and the Board of Public Depositories, 1965-1966. There are also files regarding public deposits, investments in Indiana counties, 1973-1974, certificates of deposits of state funds in local banks, 1964-1978, and audit reports for several state agencies, 1973-1978. Additional items in the collection are New's files on the State Office Building Commission including resolutions of serial debentures, space studies, refunding of revenue debentures, correspondence and meetings, 1958-1976.

The collection also contains information regarding the Knights of Pythias Greenfield lodge including membership documents and correspondence, 1872-1917, and political correspondence and publications from Roy Whitton (fl. 1930s-1950s) of Knightstown.

Correspondents include Matthew Welsh, Birch Bayh, Richard Lugar, Otis Bowen and Robert Rock.
