HISTORICAL SKETCH

Jack Landon New (1923- ) was born in Greenfield, Indiana, graduated from Indiana University and served in the U. S. Army from 1943-1946. From 1948-1951 he served as Research Director for the Indiana Democratic State Central Committee, as well as being active in the Young Democrats in the 1940s and 1950s. New was a member of the Hancock County Council from 1959-1960. In 1960, Governor Matthew Welsh named New as his administrative assistant. New served three terms as Indiana State Treasurer from 1964-1966 and 1970-1978, and was a candidate for the Democratic Party's nomination for governor in 1976. In addition to his political career, he was also the owner of a furniture store in Greenfield and a part time instructor at Indiana University.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection primarily contains records and correspondence regarding New's political career. Included are political campaign and Democratic Party files, 1936-1984, such as election information, campaign strategies, finances, party conventions and dinners, local fund raisers, correspondence, publications and newscippings. There also are records and related materials regarding New's campaigns for State Treasurer, 1964, 1970, 1974, and for the Democratic nomination for governor in 1976 including press releases, finances, office organization, issues, advertising, position papers, speaking engagements, surveys and strategies. The collection also contains records of New's involvement with the Democratic State Central Committee including correspondence, studies, publications and financial information. Other private and political materials comprise correspondence, invitations and speech materials, 1965-1976.

The collection also contains information regarding the Knights of Pythias Greenfield lodge including membership documents and correspondence, 1872-1917, and political correspondence and publications from Roy Whitton (fl. 1930s-1950s) of Knightstown.

Correspondents include Matthew Welsh, Birch Bayh, Richard Lugar, Otis Bowen and Robert Rock.
