BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Harriet Day Eitel Wells Johnson (ca. 1880-January 23, 1958) was born in Indianapolis, Indiana. She died at the Indiana State Soldiers Home in Lafayette, Tippecanoe County, Indiana and is buried in Crown Hill Cemetery in Indianapolis. She was the daughter of Henry Eitel (ca. 1853-February 1934), a prominent Indianapolis banker and financial manager of James Whitcomb Riley, and his first wife, Catherine Schramm (married 1878, died 1881). Henry Eitel subsequently married Elva May Riley, 1884 (d. 1909) and Martha Henderson, 1920, who survived him. Harriet graduated from Shortridge High School (1897) and attended The Castle Finishing School at Tarrytown-on-the-Hudson, NY. Twice married, her first husband was Samuel R. Wells, business manager of the Chicago Daily News; her second husband was Jesse T. Johnson a prominent Indianapolis architect. Harriet's association with James Whitcomb Riley stems from the ten years he resided with the Eitels.

Marcus Dickey (September 26, 1859-October 25, 1950) was born in Fayette County, Indiana. He was the son of Hugh A. and Harriet (Powell) Dickey. He died in Pensacola, Florida, and was interred in Crown Hill Cemetery. He first married Anna Mason (d. 1889) of Hackleman, Indiana in 1887. He then wed Isabelle E. Whyte of Madison, Connecticut in 1892. Educated at Fairmount Academy, Indiana State Normal School, 1880-83, (now Indiana State University) and Harvard, Dickey worked as a school administrator for a number of years. From 1896 to 1901 he was a platform manager for James Whitcomb Riley and Secretary from 1901 to 1906. Following the death of James Whitcomb Riley, Dickey was commissioned to write a biography--The Youth of James Whitcomb Riley (1919); The Maturity of James Whitcomb Riley (1922) and The Life of James Whitcomb Riley (2 vols ed.) 1923.

Margaret M. Scott (d. June 17, 1964), journalist, freelance feature writer, publicist, editor, and critic, was born about 1873 and died in Indianapolis, Indiana. She joined the staff of The News (Indianapolis) in 1892, when there was only one other female employee. She wrote society columns, music, art and drama reviews, and book reviews for Meredith Nicholson, literary editor for The News. Scott left the paper around 1910 after 18 years of service. Other professional interests included the establishment of her literary studio, IN-VAR, derived from a Shakespearian phrase "infinite variety". She worked 12 years as a research editor and literary secretary to Professor Charles R. Williams, a former editor of The News and biographer of Rutherford B. Hayes.

Cornelius Henry Menger of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, married Amber Jean Hornstein, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Crain Hornstein in New York City, on April 7, 1920. Menger first enlisted in the Coast Guard in 1916, transferred to the Coast Artillery Corp in the U.S. Army in 1917 and served in France during World War I as a Captain. He separated from the service in 1920.

Harry A. Kahn, a resident of Indianapolis, may have been married to Caroline Michael Kahn.

James Whitcomb Riley, a noted Hoosier poet, was born, on October 7, 1849, in Greenfield, Indiana. The third child of Reuben A. and Elizabeth (Marine) Riley, he died on July 22, 1916 in Indianapolis, and is buried at Crown Hill Cemetery. Best known for his dialect verse, such as Raggedy Man (1907) and Little Orphant Annie (1908), his first poem appeared in 1870. In 1877 he started work at the Indianapolis Journal and his first publication The Old Swimmin' Hole and Leven More Poems appeared in 1883. From the mid-1880s Riley travelled the lecture circuit. Never married, he lived in rental quarters with Mr. & Mrs. Charles L. Holstein on Lockerbie Street.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection consists mainly of correspondence and literary products, a journal, clippings and some visual images. The collection was started with a bequest from Riley's niece-by-marriage, Harriet Day Eitel Wells Johnson, with other additions by donation and purchase. These various accessions were originally processed as a single collection. In 1995, in an effort to reflect provenance, the collection was reprocessed in three series, each series reflecting a particular donation or artificial collection. Series I represents materials from the original bequest from the Johnson estate and is divided into three subseries: the Johnson Papers; the Margaret M. Scott Papers and the Cornelius H. Menger Papers. No apparent relationship exists between the Menger Papers and the Johnson and Scott Papers. Series II are papers from the Harry A. Kahn's gift accession and Series III is an artificial collection of James Whitcomb Riley correspondence and verse from various sources. Unlike the other materials within the collection, the Menger papers have no obvious direct relationship to Riley.

Series one is broken into sub series. The first is Box 1, folders 1-15, OVA folders 1-3, Photographs Box 1, folders 1-5, OMB 0057, folders 1-3, and FF 11-m, folder 1, contains papers of Harriet Eitel Wells Johnson. These include correspondence, 1893-1952, Invitations and Programs 1899-1955; Personal writings; photographs, and other personal papers. While much of the correspondence is from family members, Henry Eitel, and Elizabeth Eitel Miesse, there is a large selection of correspondence from Marcus Dickey, Platform Manager and Secretary to James Whitcomb Riley, and his wife Julia Dickey.

The second subseries, Box 1, folders 16-20 and Photograph Box 1, folder 6-8, OVA folder 4, and OMB 0057, folders 4-5, and FF 11-m, folder 2 contains correspondence and other materials of Margaret M. Scott. Letters from George Ade, John T. McCutcheon, and a collage of autographs by Ida M. Tarbell, Julia Marlow Sothern, Otis Skinner, and Charles Major are found in these folders.

The third subseries, Box 1, folders 21-26, contains the World War I journal of Cornelius H. Menger, and other military and personal papers. Maps and broadsides in OMB 0057, folder 5 as well as FF 11-m, folder 2 are part of Menger's materials. The journal is readable, well written and illustrated and gives a picture of a military career.

Series two, the Kahn papers in Box 2, folders 1-2, contain letters, dictated by James Whitcomb Riley to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kahn, 1914-1916, and one letter from Magdalene N. Holstein to the Kahns. Included with these letters are several photographs of James Whitcomb Riley while in Florida.

The third series represents an artificial grouping of miscellaneous Riley materials acquired by the Indiana Historical Society throughout the years since 1948. The materials have been arranged in two major groups: correspondence and poetry. The correspondence, Box 2, folders 3-16, is filed chronologically. The poetry, Box 3, folders 1-21, is filed in two groups--the first chronological, Box 3, folders 1-15, and the second alphabetical by title of poem, Box 3, folders 16-21. Folder 22 contains some visual images of James Whitcomb Riley. Folder 23 contains undated sketches by James Whitcomb Riley.
