BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Etta Cohee was born to Vincent and Marilla (Slusser) Cohee in Cass County, Indiana, in 1882. She also had a sister, Grace, who was a year older and a brother Jason, who was a year younger.

Joseph R. Cates, born 1873, married Etta Cohee on 10 September 1903, in Cass County, Indiana. The 1920 U. S. Census shows their residence as Wayne County, Indiana. The census also shows the couple having three children, Howard C. (11 years), Jack D. (6 years), and Mary A. (3 years).

Jason Cohee served as a chaplain in the U.S. Army during World War I and he married Theresa Hawley in 1909. They lived in Kansas where he was stationed in the 1920's. They had two daughters, Florence and Jane. Jane married John Edwin Barr in Texas in 1932.

Etta (Cohee) Cates youngest, Mary Alice (4 February 1916 – 5 July 2014) was married twice. Her first marriage was to Pete Bryant and the second was to Charles LecClier, Jr. Both husbands preceded her in death. Charles LecClier served in the U.S. Navy during World War II and was apparently an avid photographer and sales manager at Hoosier Photo Supplies, Inc. in Indianapolis, Ind. Mary Alice was a nurse at the VA Hospital for about 40 years. She was a graduate of the Methodist Hospital School of Nursing.

Mary Alice apparently did not have any children with either husband. This collection was donated by Merrill Cates, Mary Alice's second cousin.
