SCOPE AND CONTENT

The collection contains letters, a mortgage form, and one photograph. The letters are written to Martha Lattimore. The letter dated 9 January 1880, is written by William C. Mace of Glasgow, Kentucky to his sister, Martha Lattimore in Noblesville, Indiana. He relates activities in Glasgow, as well as comments on family affairs, his state of mind, and race relations. Mace congratulates Lattimore upon her marriage. A shorter letter, not dated, is written to Lattimore from her brother Jefferson Mace, while he resided in Madeira, Hamilton County, Ohio. According to the mortgage form, Martha Lattimore deeded property that she owned in Noblesville, Hamilton County, Indiana to Samuel S. Teter on 4 October 1890. The 1907 photograph is of Martha Lattimore's body in a casket in the parlor of her sister's (Lucy Jane Mace Tyree) home located in Indianapolis.
