HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Milroy Culture Club was established in 1924 by eighteen charter members, including Mrs. Laura Francis (president), Miss Mary Kitchen (vice president), and Mrs. Russell Harton (secretary–treasurer). It was created to fill the need for a literary society for newly–graduated and newly–married young women. Club meetings happened monthly and included programs for members. The last meeting of the Milroy Culture Club occurred on 22 October 1992.
