BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Oliver G. Templeton was born in Indiana around 1859 to John Templeton and Elizabeth J. Barnard. He married Ida Taylor in September 1884 in Decatur County, Indiana. Templeton was the proprietor of the Blacksmith & General Repair Shop in Brookville, Indiana. He specialized in blacksmithing, but also provided the Brookside community with construction materials and other materials as needed. During this time period, Brookville was a bustling town with several mills, including saw and paper mills.
