NOTES:
BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Ruth Donelson was born Ruth Ebner in Indianapolis around 1910. Her father Edward Ebner had served as a private in the 161st Indiana Volunteers, Company C, during the Spanish-American War. She attended Thomas D. Gregg School and Arsenal Technical High School, graduating in 1926. Her brother Charles A. Ebner, who also attended Arsenal Technical, fought in the Second World War.

In 1933 she married Norman “Don” Donelson, with whom she operated Donelson’s Pharmacy in Greencastle. The couple had three daughters, Marilyn, Janet, and Deborah. Marilyn attended Indiana University and Methodist Hospital’s School of Nursing. A year after her husband’s 1983 death, Ruth Donelson moved to North Fort Myers, Florida. She relocated to Hilton Head, South Carolina in 1992, and then to Orlando in 2005. She died in 2010 at the age of 100.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The materials in this collection belonged to Ruth Donelson and were donated by her niece Charlotte Carmichael. The first series comprises miscellaneous family materials, such as commencement programs and military records. It also includes Ruth Donelson’s 1926 Arts-and-Crafts style diploma from Arsenal Technical High School, a 1950 “Survival Under Atomic Attack” pamphlet, and an undated group portrait of Indiana Bell long-distance operators.

The second series consists solely of photographs associated with Edward Ebner’s time in Cuba during the Spanish-American War. Most of the images depict military personnel, camps, or ships, but some show civilian Cuban architecture and locations such as cemeteries and squares. Of particular note in this series is a photograph of the wreckage of the U.S.S. Maine.
