Information in collection.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection consists of a four-page letter written by Berry from Vincennes, Indiana Territory, to his cousin, James T. Eubank, in Newport, Kentucky, 20 July [1813]. In the letter Berry discusses life on the Indiana frontier and his attitudes towards Native Americans.

Berry notes that he has enclosed a letter to General Taylor that he had asked his cousin to forward to the appropriate individual (not included).
