HISTORICAL SKETCH

This collection centers around the Vernon family of Madison County, Indiana, and documents the following facts:

Isaac Bailey married Hannah Scarlet in Chester County, Pennsylvania, in 1765. Their daughter, Mary Bailey, married Abraham (Abram) Vernon (d. 1859) in Chester County in 1801. Abram Vernon bought land in Madison County, Indiana, in 1830. Edward B. Vernon, son of Abram and Mary Vernon, married Hannah Rogers in 1840. One of their children was Abner R. Vernon. The family continued to live in Madison County, and most belonged to the Society of Friends.
SCOPE AND CONTENT

This collection, filling eight oversize folders, contains legal documents, deeds, and a list of children, covering the years 1765-1932. Two political ribbons, from the campaigns of 1888 and 1896, are stored in Artifacts. The attached calendar is the best way to describe the collection.
