

Collection #
SC 3320

VIRGIL STEGNER DIARY
COLLECTION ADDITION, 12 OCTOBER 2000

Collection Information

Biographical Sketch

Scope and Content Note

Contents

Processed by

Alysha Zemanek
August 2017

Manuscript and Visual Collections Department
William Henry Smith Memorial Library
Indiana Historical Society
450 West Ohio Street
Indianapolis, IN 46202-3269

www.indianahistory.org

COLLECTION INFORMATION

VOLUME OF
COLLECTION: 1 manuscript folder

COLLECTION
DATES: 12 October 2000

PROVENANCE: Richard L. Rieck, Macomb, IL; November 2000

RESTRICTIONS: None

COPYRIGHT:

REPRODUCTION
RIGHTS: Permission to reproduce or publish material in this collection must be obtained from the Indiana Historical Society.

ALTERNATE
FORMATS:

RELATED
HOLDINGS: Virgil Stegner Diary (SC 2626); California Gold Rush Diary of Charles H. Harvey (F 865, .H 29, 1983); California Gold Rush
Memoirs and Letters, 1850 (SC 2100); Richard Keen
Correspondence (SC 0897); Marcus Lindsay Talbott Letter
(SC 1956); Daniel R. Leeper, *The Argonauts of 'Forty-Nine:
Some Recollections of the Plains and the Digging* (F 865, .L48, 1894).

ACCESSION
NUMBER: 2001.0063

NOTES:

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

No biographical information was obtainable concerning Virgil Stegner.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection addition contains a transcript of a portion of Virgil Stegner's diary. The diary contains a detailed description of Stegner's expedition from Rising Sun (Ohio County), Indiana, with a party of fortune seekers to mine gold in California in 1850. The diary transcription includes Virgil's departure from Rising Sun, Indiana on 4 May 1850 through his party's arrival in Coloma, California on 27 August 1850.

CONTENTS

CONTENTS

Virgil Stegner diary addition, 12 October 2000

CONTAINER

Folder 1