BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Virginia Dolan was an educator who spent 38 years of her 42-year teaching career in the Indianapolis Public School (IPS) system's elementary schools. It appears that she taught at George B. Loomis School #85 (at 338 S. Arlington Avenue) from 1947–1953; at Robert Browning School #73 (at 4101 East 30th Street) from 1953–1968; and at George Washington Carver School #87 (at 2411 Indianapolis Avenue) from 1968–1985.

Virginia "Ginny" Grace Dolan was born 16 March 1921 in Sullivan, Moultrie County, Illinois, to John Harvey Dolan (1891–1952) and Vianna Grace Bracken Dolan (1894–1997). She grew up on her father's farm in the Jonathan Creek township of Moultrie County with an older sister, Betty, and a younger brother, Gerald.

Virginia graduated from the Two Mile School and Sullivan High School in Illinois before earning a bachelor's degree in education from Eastern Illinois State Teacher's College in Charleston in 1943. She earned her master's degree from Teachers College of Columbia University in New York. She began her teaching career at Webber School in Saginaw, Michigan.

She was an active member of the Third Christian Church in Indianapolis, serving as an elder, department chairperson, and president of the Christian Women's Fellowship. She was actively involved in many organizations, and served as president for Delta Kappa Gamma Society - Beta Chapter (honor society for women educators) and the Meridian Toastmistress Club, as well as state president of Toastmistress Clubs.

Miss Dolan died 18 September 2001 in Indianapolis and was buried in Greenhill Cemetery in Sullivan, Illinois.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection consists of formal portraits (individual and group) and snapshots of students, faculty, and school staff taken during Virginia Dolan's 38-year career as an elementary teacher in the Indianapolis Public School (IPS) system. The particular schools included are: George B. Loomis School #85 from 1947–1953; Robert Browning School #73 from 1953–1968; and George Washington Carver School #87 from 1968–1985.

The collection is arranged in six series:

Series 1, Faculty Group Photographs: includes three black-and-white and twelve color photographs of teachers from 1947–1983 at the three schools where Virginia Dolan taught. Most are identified.

Series 2, School Staff Photographs: contains five black-and-white and six color photographs of Virginia Dolan, custodians, an aide, and a clerk. They are all identified. There are also photos of Mary Kathryn Owsley, principal of school #87, including snapshots of her retirement gathering in June 1979.

Series 3, Group Photographs of Miss Dolan's Classes: is composed of twelve black-and-white and five color group portraits of Virginia Dolan's classes at schools #73 and #87. Only sixteen of her classes are represented from 1954–55 through 1984–85. Most students are identified by their names written on the backs of the photos.

Series 4, Snapshots of Students: consists of ten black-and white photos of groups of students from 1947–1951; only four photos from 1951 have students identified by name. There are also fifty color photos from 1969–83 of groups of students, displays, and events at school #87; many of the students are identified.

Series 5, Individual Student Portraits Grouped by Years: is composed of 296 black-and-white and seven color school portraits; most are identified. These portraits are from school years 1952–53 through 1981–82.

Series 6, Individual Student Portraits -- Alphabetically by Last Name: includes 158 black-and-white and three color portraits identified by name as well as 39 black-and-white and one color unidentified portraits.

Researchers looking for photos of particular people should do a keyword search for the name in this collection guide to find all of the pictures of an individual. Some of the students have more than one portrait in more than one school year. Some of the handwritten names were difficult to read or possibly misspelled, so separate searches for last name only and first name only may yield results if first searching for the first and last names together does not. Some names of the same people are spelled differently on the backs of different photos. Also look at the group portraits and unidentified portraits.
