BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Galen Edward Weddle (1829–1914) and Sarah "Sally" Rainwater (1831–1906) were married in Pulaski County, Kentucky on July 6, 1847. They had six children: Martha Ellen (1848–1932); Miles Rainwater (1855–1905); Thomas Bramletter (1861–1912); Cornelia (1871–1928); Willard A. (1873–1949); and Leora (1874–1947). Galen E. enlisted as a private in Company D, 3rd Infantry Regiment Kentucky during the Civil War on November 5, 1861 in Columbia Kentucky. Following the war, he and Sally settled in Marion Township, Monroe County, Indiana.

Monroe County, established in 1818 and named after President James Monroe, is located in southern Indiana. The majority of its white settlers were from the Upland South region: Kentucky, Virginia, Tennessee, and the Carolinas. At the time of its establishment, Bloomington was named its county seat. In 1824 a seminary school was established in Bloomington, later becoming Indiana University.
